Deputy Director for Administration ✓
Deputy Director for Science and Technology
Director, Intelligence Community Staff
General Counsel
Comptroller

ODP # 81-839

FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Liaison with the Congress

1. As previously stated in the Director's Note and the 24 June 1981 Administrative Notice HN [] the Legislative Liaison Branch will serve as the focal point for liaison with the Congress, its individual Members and their staffs; and with the Legislative Liaison Staffs of other Executive departments and agencies including the Intelligence Community. This Branch will keep the DCI and DDCI informed on all Congressional matters involving or affecting the Agency and the Intelligence Community. In order to carry out this responsibility, all Directorates and independent offices involved with Congressional affairs must coordinate and clear proposed activities with the Legislative Liaison Branch. A liaison officer will be in attendance at all briefings, hearings and meetings conducted on the Hill regarding Agency and Intelligence Community affairs.

2. Should there be any questions in this regard, please direct your inquiries to Chief of the Legislative Liaison Branch on [] or []
